NUGGETS EXECUTIVES

Calvin Booth General Manager

Calvin Booth enters his third season as General Manager with the Denver Nuggets and his first as the lead decision maker. Booth joined the Nuggets in 2017 as Assistant General Manager after spending four seasons with the Minnesota Timberwolves as Director of Player Personnel and most recently as their Director of Pro Personnel.

In his time in Denver, Booth has helped orchestrate the Nuggets ascension towards the top of the Western Conference. He works closely with KSE Vice Chairman Josh Kroenke on all aspects of team and organizational matters as they aim to keep the Nuggets among the NBA elite.

Booth enjoyed a 10-year NBA playing career (1999-2009) with the Washington Wizards, Dallas Mavericks, Seattle Sonics, Milwaukee Bucks, Philadelphia 76ers, Minnesota Timberwolves and Sacramento Kings.

In 366 career games, 83 starts, the 6-11 forward/center averaged 3.3 points, 2.8 rebounds and 0.9 blocks per game. Booth appeared in seven games for Sacramento in the 2008-09 season before retiring in the summer of 2009. After his playing career, he served as a scout, both pro and collegiate, with the New Orleans Hornets in 2012-13.

Booth, a native of Reynoldsburg, Ohio, played college basketball at Penn State from 1995-99 and was Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year as a junior and All-Big Ten Second Team as a senior Booth and his wife, Keisha, and their daughters, Carter (19) and Camble (12), and sons, Carey (17) and Clarke (9) reside in Denver.

Tommy BalcetisAssistant General Manager

Tommy Balcetis enters his third season as assistant general manager after serving as the Vice President of Basketball Strategy and Analytics. This will be Balcetis' 10th season with the Denver Nuggets, previously holding the title of Director of Basketball Strategy & Analytics for three seasons. He also served as the Manager of Basketball Analytics from 2013 to 2016.

Balcetis works closely with General Manager Calvin Booth on day-to-day operations related to player contracts, scouting, salary cap, player movement, and other player personnel matters. Balcetis also oversees the team's analytics projects and strategic initiatives.

Balcetis graduated from Harvard University in 2010 with a degree in Economics and Psychology. His background includes working for the NBA League offices in London, England in the international media department from 2012 to 2013 and served as a business consultant at Fidelity Investments from 2010 to 2012.

Balcetis, a native of Vilnius, Lithuania, played basketball at the Sarunas Marculionis Basketball Academy before attending school in the United States. He resides in Denver with his wife Rasa and two sons.

Ben TenzerVice President of Basketball Operations

Ben Tenzer enters his second season as the Denver Nuggets Vice President of Basketball Operations, having previously served as the team's Director of Basketball Operations. He is in his 14th season in the organization, working closely with President Josh Kroenke and General Manager Calvin Booth on all aspects of the Basketball Operations department.

His focus is on day-to-day management, salary cap strategy, legal, visas and other immigration matters, insurance and player personnel. Additionally, Ben spearheaded the process of securing Nuggets G-League affiliate, the Grand Rapids Gold, and helps oversee that organization.

Tenzer is a Los Angeles native and member of the California Bar. He graduated from University of Colorado, Boulder, and Southwestern Law School. He rejoined the Nuggets organization in 2013, after employment in various capacities in the front office from 2005-2009.

His background also includes working at MTV Networks (2002-2004), the NBA Vegas Summer League (2005-2012), Adidas Nations (2010-2012), and Wasserman Media Group (2010). He was also a member of the NBA's global outreach program, Basketball Without Borders-Africa, in 2007 and 2008.

He and his family reside in Denver.

NUGGETS EXECUTIVES

Lisa JohnsonVice President of Basketball Administration

Lisa Johnson enters her 42nd season with the Denver Nuggets, where she has spent her entire professional career.

Upon graduation from the University of Denver, Johnson worked her way up through the organization beginning in season ticket sales, receptionist/front office assistant, community relations, media relations and basketball operations before entering her current role as Vice President of Basketball Administration nine seasons ago.

Her job duties include working closely with the various departments throughout KSE with the day-to-day business operations of the organization. Johnson also oversees the team travel, player appearance program, NBA game scheduling, basketball staff ticketing, arena security, and special Nuggets related events.

Lisa has strong roots to Denver and Colorado, she grew up in Littleton where she now resides with her husband Jim. Together they enjoy traveling, Native American art and culture, gardening, horseback riding, music and supporting the local sports teams as well as the theatre and the arts. Jim Clibanoff enters his first season as Vice President of Player Personnel after spending the 2021-22 season as the Vice President of Scouting. This will be Clibanoff's 10th season with the Denver Nuggets front office, previously holding the title as the Director of Scouting for eight seasons.

Prior to joining the Nuggets, Clibanoff created and was president his own scouting service called "ClibHoops" to which NBA and international clubs subscribed. Over the 10 years the service ran, Clibanoff appeared as a consultant to various media outlets, providing insights on the NBA Draft and pro prospects from around the world.

Clibanoff, a native of Philadelphia, graduated from Tufts University in 1989 and got his start as Director of Player Personnel for the USBL's Philadelphia Spirit in 1991. Over the subsequent years, he earned his juris doctor from Temple University's Beasley School of Law while continuing his basketball career. Following his time with the Spirit, he continued to evaluate professional players from all over the globe and helped several secure employment in various leagues around the world before starting his personal scouting service.

Clibanoff resides in the Philly suburbs with his wife Felice and his two daughters Elle and Remie.

Scott Howard Director of Player Personnel/GM, Grand Rapids Gold

Scott Howard is entering his eighth season with the Denver Nuggets front office and his second as Director of Player Personnel. He was originally hired as Director of College Scouting prior to the 2015-16 season. In addition to his role with the Nuggets, Howard also serves as the General Manager for the Grand Rapids Gold.

Prior to joining the Nuggets, Howard spent eight seasons with the Charlotte organization as their Director of Scouting. He spent the previous season as a scout with the Milwaukee Bucks, and spent two years before that with the Toronto Raptors as Director of International Player Personnel, where he was responsible for all aspects of player personnel outside of North America and coordinated player workouts ahead of the NBA Draft. He also served as a scout for the Washington Wizards from 2000-04.

Howard also spent 17 years as a collegiate coach, including seven seasons at the University of Miami, three seasons at the University of Nebraska, and one season each at Southern Illinois, Drake and Southern California.

Howard received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983 from lowa State University, where he was a two-year letterman for the basketball team. He earned his master's degree in educational administration from the University of Iowa in 1985 while serving as a volunteer assistant and graduate assistant coach.

Drew NicholasDirector of Scouting

Drew Nicholas enters his first year with the Nuggets as the Director of Scouting after previously serving as a scout for the Boston Celtics during the 2021-22 season.

Prior to his time in Denver, Nicholas spent two seasons with the Philadelphia 76ers (2019-21) and three seasons with the Minnesota Timberwolves (2016-19) as a scout. Drew has also served as a basketball analyst and commentator with Total College Sports.

Nicholas played professionally overseas for nine seasons, where he was a two-time EuroLeague Champion (2009, 2011) and was the Italian League top scorer in 2005. The Hempstead, New York native also had a successful collegiate career with the University of Maryland, where he won the 2002 NCAA National Championship.

Drew currently resides in Parkland, FL with his wife Alexsius, son Jaxon (20), and daughters Madison (4) and Raegan (2)

HEAD COACH

Michael Malone Head Coach

Michael Malone enters his eighth season as head coach of the Denver Nuggets. He was named the 16th head coach in Denver's NBA franchise history on June 15, 2015 and currently ranks third all-time amongst Nuggets head coaches with 266 wins.

Last season saw Coach Malone lead the Nuggets to a 47-25 record in a 72-game shortened season as they clinched a playoff berth for the third straight year. Denver finished the season tying a franchise record with 22 road wins, securing the third seed in the Western Conference and became the only team in the NBA to have home court advantage in the playoffs in each of the last three seasons.

In the playoffs, despite missing Jamal Murray due to injury, Malone helped lead the Nuggets to a 4-2 first round series victory over the Portland Trail Blazers. It was a historic series win for Denver as they won a playoff series in three straight seasons for the first time in franchise history. It marked the fourth playoff series win in the last three seasons, after winning a total of four in the last 32 years. It was also the first time in Nuggets history they clinched a best of seven series on the road (excluding the bubble).

Since Malone has taken over prior to the 2015-16 season, the Nuggets have seen the postseason on three occasions including a Western Conference Finals appearance in 2020, the first for the franchise since 2009. The Nuggets are also second in the NBA, trailing only the Milwaukee Bucks for the most combined regular season and postseason wins in a three-year span with 167. Malone has totaled 20 postseason wins, sitting fourth all-time in franchise history trailing Doug Moe by four for first.

Malone has 305 victories as an NBA head coach and possesses over 24 years of coaching experience, 20 coming in the NBA with six different teams – New York, Cleveland, New Orleans, Golden State, Sacramento and Denver. The teams that Malone has been a member of the coaching staff have amassed 12 playoff appearances, including one NBA Finals showing and three conference finals appearances. Malone and his staff also were selected to coach Team LeBron at the 2019 NBA All-Star game in Charlotte, NC, defeating Team Giannis 178-164.

Before joining the Nuggets, Malone served as the head coach of the Sacramento Kings for two seasons. Before his time with the Kings, Malone was the lead assistant for the Golden State Warriors under Mark Jackson from 2011-13 where they clinched a postseason berth in 2013, their first since 2007.

Prior to Golden State, Malone worked as the lead assistant to Monty Williams in New Orleans and helped the Hornets achieve a 46-36 record and a trip to the 2011 NBA Playoffs. The Hornets were the most improved defensive team in the NBA in 2011, allowing a league-best 8.7 fewer points per game than in the previous campaign (94.0 ppg, after giving up 102.7 ppg in 2009-10).

Malone also served as an assistant coach under Mike Brown for the Cleveland Cavaliers for five seasons, during which the Cavs posted a 272-138 (.663) record, the third-best mark in the NBA over that span. The Cavaliers made five consecutive playoff appearances during Malone's time on the bench, reaching the NBA Finals in 2007 and the Eastern Conference Finals in 2009. In 2008-09, the Cavs notched a franchise record and NBA-best 66 wins, with Malone and the rest of the team's staff earning the right to coach the Eastern Conference All-Star squad. In 2009-10, the Cavaliers again captured the league's best regular season record with 61 wins.

Malone's NBA coaching career began with a four-season stint with the New York Knicks, where he originally joined Jeff Van Gundy's staff as a coaching associate in the summer of 2001, and was promoted to assistant coach in May 2003.

Before joining the NBA, Malone coached seven years in the college ranks, with his last stop coming at Manhattan College where he was the lead assistant. During the 1998-99 season Malone worked at the University of Virginia as its director of men's basketball administration. Malone also spent three seasons (1995-96 – 1997-98) at Providence College under New York Basketball Hall of Fame coach Pete Gillen after beginning his coaching career working for Greg Kampe at Oakland University in Michigan.

Malone is a three-time participant in the NBA's "Basketball Without Borders" program, having coached at the league's global outreach camps in Africa (2017), Puerto Rico (2006) and Argentina (2005). In 2017 Malone traveled to Johannesburg, South Africa where he spent a week coaching at the BWB camps and then served as an assistant coach for Team Africa, for the NBA Africa Game 2017.

Malone also served as an assistant coach for the Canadian Men's Senior National Team for three years. He helped guide the Canadian team to a top-four finish in the 2009 FIBA Americas Championship in Puerto Rico, qualifying Canada for the 2010 World Championships.

A native of Queens, New York, Malone played college basketball at Loyola College in Maryland, where he graduated with a BA degree in 1994. He is a graduate of New Jersey's Seton Hall Prep where he played two years under Bob Farrell. Malone also played a season under Tom Blackburn at Worcester Academy (Mass.).

Michael is the son of longtime NBA coach Brendan Malone, who has coached over 28 years in the league. He and his wife, Jocelyn, have two daughters, Caitlin and Bridget.

COACHING STAFF

David Adelman Assistant Coach

David Adelman begins his sixth season as assistant coach with the Denver Nuggets.

Adelman served as an assistant coach during the 2016-17 season with the Orlando Magic before starting his tenure in Denver. He also spent the previous five seasons (2011-16) with Minnesota, including the final three as an assistant coach. His NBA career began in 2011 as a player development coach. He also served as head coach for the Timberwolves summer league team for three seasons. Prior to joining the Timberwolves, Adelman spent five seasons as head basketball coach at Lincoln High School in Portland, Oregon.

Adelman went 83-53 (.610) during his five seasons at Lincoln, leading the Cardinals to three Portland Interscholastic district championships (2006-07, 2009-10, 2010-11). He also guided Lincoln to the Oregon Class 6A state championship final in 2009. Adelman was named PIL Coach of the Year three times.

Prior to coaching at Lincoln, Adelman was an assistant coach at his alma mater, Jesuit High School in Portland, from 2001-06, helping the team win the state championship in 2005. He also helped Jesuit capture a state title as a player in 1999.

Adelman has participated in the NBA's Basketball Without Borders program, serving as a coach in Russia, China and Africa. He has also served as head coach at numerous clinics and camps, including Adidas Nations and the Pan Pacific Games. Adelman attended the University of Portland before joining the Jesuit staff.

Adelman is the son of Rick Adelman, who served as an NBA head coach for 23 seasons. He has a degree in history from Southern New Hampshire University. Adelman and his wife, Jenny, have one son, Leonard Joseph (L.J.), and one daughter, Lennan Marie.

Ryan Saunders Assistant Coach

Ryan Saunders enters his first season with the Nuggets coaching staff after previously serving as the Head Coach of the Minnesota Timberwolves from 2019-2021.

Before joining Minnesota's staff, Saunders spent five seasons as an assistant coach with the Washington Wizards, where he played a key role in the development of All-Stars John Wall and Bradley Beal, among others. Saunders was also heavily involved in game preparation for upcoming opponents, creating extensive scouting reports and statistical analysis.

A University of Minnesota graduate, Saunders worked on Tubby Smith's staff at his alma mater after playing four seasons with the Golden Gophers where he was a two-time captain, four-time scholar athlete award winner and a 2006 Big Ten All-Academic selection. He earned his bachelor's degree in sport management.

Saunders is the son of Debbie and Flip Saunders, a 17-year NBA coaching veteran and the all-time winningest coach in Minnesota Timberwolves franchise history.

Popeye Jones Assistant Coach

Popeye Jones enters his second season with the Nuggets coaching staff after spending the 2020-21 season as an assistant coach with the Philadelphia 76ers. Prior to Philadelphia, Jones spent seven seasons with the Indiana Pacers as an assistant coach.

Jones had a three-year tenure with the Brooklyn/New Jersey Nets front office, starting in player development before transitioning to an assistant coach role. He began his coaching career with the Dallas Mavericks where he worked in player development.

Jones played collegiately at Murray State, where he is fourth on the Racers' all-time scoring list. In 1992, the school retired his No. 54. A second-round pick in the 1992 NBA Draft, Jones played one season in Italy before joining the Mavericks in 1993. Jones also appeared in 40 games during the 1999-2000 with the Nuggets, averaging 2.6 points and 2.6 rebounds in 8.3 minutes per game.

Jones career spanned 11 seasons, appearing in 535 games (304 starts) for Dallas, Toronto, Boston, Denver, Washington and Golden State. He held career averages of 7.0 points and 7.4 rebounds in 23.5 minutes per game prior to retiring in 2004.

Jones is the proud father of four sons, Justin, Seth, Caleb and Camden. Seth and Caleb play professional hockey and are teammates on the Chicago Blackhawks.

COACHING STAFF

Ryan Bowen Assistant Coach

Ryan Bowen enters his eighth season with the Denver Nuggets coaching staff and his 12th season as an assistant coach in the NBA. Bowen spent two seasons (2011-12 and 2012-13) with Denver before joining Coach Malone's staff in Sacramento and then returned to the Nuggets in 2015. In his role with Denver, he assists in all aspects on the coaching staff, including on-court player development. Bowen also served as the Nuggets Summer League head coach during the 2022 Las Vegas Summer League

A 10-year NBA veteran, he appeared in 507 career games with the Nuggets (1999-2000 – 2003-04), Houston Rockets (2004-05 – 2005-06), New Orleans Hornets (2007-08 and 2008-09) and Oklahoma City Thunder (2009-10). His professional experience includes time playing overseas for Oyak Renault (Turkey) and Ironi Nahariya (Israel). Bowen was selected by the Nuggets in the second round (55th overall) of the 1998 NBA Draft and was recently selected to the Nuggets All-Time Top 50 players voted on by local media.

As a collegian, Bowen enjoyed a four-year career at the University of Iowa, posting 14.4 points, 8.7 rebounds and 2.5 assists per contest during his senior year in 1997-98. He finished his career at Iowa as the school's career field goal percentage leader (.575) and career steals leader (208) and ranks fourth in blocks (124) and eighth in rebounds (804). A two-time All-Big Ten selection, Bowen was inducted into the Iowa Boys Basketball Hall of Fame in 2012.

Following retirement from professional basketball in 2009, Bowen returned to his alma mater as video coordinator for the Hawkeyes, working in that capacity for one season before departing lowa City for a spot on the Nuggets coaching staff.

A native of Fort Madison, Iowa, Bowen and his wife, Wendy, have a daughter, Isabel, and two sons, Benjamin and Zachary. Ben is currently a sophomore, playing basketball at Denver University.

Charles Klask Assistant Coach

Charles Klask enters his fifth season with the Denver Nuggets after spending the previous four years with the Detroit Pistons coaching staff.

Previously, Klask spent the 2013-14 season as an assistant coach/advance scout with the Brooklyn Nets. He also served as an assistant coach with the Pistons from 2011-13 and worked for the Orlando Magic from 2002-11 as a video coordinator, advance scout and the last three years as the scouting information manager.

Before joining the Magic, Klask got his start in the NBA with the Pistons as a video coordinating intern in the summer of 2001 and then became the video coordinator of the Detroit Shock of the WNBA. The previous two years he worked as a coaching assistant with the Grand Rapids Hoops of the CBA and worked as an assistant coach for the Dodge City Legend of the USBL during the summer of 2000.

A native of Livonia, MI, Klask attended Livonia Stevenson High School and is a graduate of Michigan State University. He and his wife, Brienne, have two children.

opponents throughout the season.

John Beckett Assistant Coach

John Beckett enters his ninth season on the Nuggets coaching staff and fourth as an assistant coach after spending the previous four seasons as Director of Player Development.

Prior to coming to Denver, Beckett was an assistant coach with the Delaware 87ers of the NBA Development League where he was responsible for conducting individual pre-game and pre-practice workouts for players, developing player strength-and-conditioning programs and preparing advanced scouting reports on upcoming opponents. He also helped prepare practice plans and provided detailed progress and scouting reports on 87ers

Before joining the 87ers, Beckett spent nine years with the Atlanta Hawks (2004-13), serving as the team's video coordinator and assisting with player development. In addition to creating video edits as part of the team's game preparation, Beckett led and assisted in workouts and traveled as a college scout.

In addition to his work on the court, Beckett spent 14 years as a freelance production contributor for Turner Sports and NBA TV. He was a member of the Emmy Award-winning "NBA on TNT" studio show.

After being named the 1996-97 Fayette County Player of the Year at Sandy Creek High School, Beckett attended Georgia State University before transferring to Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Fla., in 1998. Dan ShimenskyHead Athletic Trainer

Dan Shimensky enters his 16th season with the Denver Nuggets and his ninth as Head Athletic Trainer. In addition to helping keep the Nuggets health top priority, Dan also takes on various duties within the organization that makes the ballclub run fluently; one of which is coordinating the team's travel.

Along with being a certified and licensed (Colorado) Athletic Trainer, Shimensky has obtained his corrective exercise specialization (CES) and performance enhancement specialization (PES) certifications through the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM) and his certification in applied functional science (CAFS) from the Gray Institute. Dan is also a Certified Functional Strength Coach (CFSC) through Mike Boyle's strength and conditioning program. Furthermore, he has obtained his certification in dry needling under the guidelines of Dr. Yun-tao Ma's Systemic Dry Needling for Sport Performance, and in the use of the Personalized Tourniquet System for Blood Flow Restriction (BFR) rehabilitation under the Owens Recovery Science program.

Shimensky served as the Assistant Athletic Trainer/Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach for the previous seven seasons (2007-2014) before moving into his current role. During this time he served as an executive committee member representing the Western Conference Assistant Athletic Trainers during the 2013-2014 NBA season.

A graduate of Central Washington University, Shimensky received his master's degree in exercise science. While at CWU, he was the graduate assistant athletic trainer for football and men's basketball.

Prior to his tenure at Central Washington, Shimensky completed his undergraduate work at the University of Utah, receiving his degree in exercise science with an emphasis in athletic training. He worked on the training staff for football and women's gymnastics.

While at Utah, Shimensky also had the opportunity to be involved in numerous internships with several NBA organizations including the Miami Heat (Summer, 2003), the Nuggets (Fall, 2004) and the Seattle Sonics (Summers of 2004, 05, 06).

In 2009, Shimensky was honored to be selected as Head Athletic Trainer for the USA men's U-19 Men's FIBA World Championships. Held in Auckland, New Zealand, Shimensky helped Team USA capture the gold medal, an accomplishment that had not been achieved since 1991.

In 2011, Shimensky was brought back to USA basketball as Head Athletic Trainer for the men's U-16 national team for the FIBA Americas Championship. Hosted in Cancun, Mexico, Shimensky was able to obtain a second gold medal as team USA finished with a perfect 5-0 record.

In the summer of 2022 Dan was selected as the camp's Athletic Trainer for Basketball Without Borders Asia. This camp was held in Canberra Australia bringing together top young basketball prospects from all over Asia, Oceania and the Pacific by the NBA, FIBA and participating national federations. During this time Dan was joined by other NBA, WNBA and FIBA players and coaches.

Shimensky and his wife Heather have a family that include their two sons, Hudson and Harris, daughter Henley and their dogs named Koko and Lola (R.I.P Suki).

His father, Mike, was a longtime NBA Athletic Trainer.

PERFROMANCE STAFF

Felipe Eichenberger Director of Performance/Head Strength and Conditioning Coach

Felipe Eichenberger begins his third season as the Nuggets Director of Performance/Head Strength and Conditioning Coach after spending the previous three seasons as the teams Head Strength and Conditioning Coach. In this role he is responsible for all the team's weight training, conditioning, daily tracking and load management, and nutritional programs.

Eichenberger came to Denver prior to the 2011-12 campaign and served five seasons as the Assistant Strength and Conditioning coach before being named the Associate Head Strength and Conditioning coach for the 2016-17 season. A native of Ribeirão Preto, São Paulo, Brazil, Eichenberger attended Northwestern Oklahoma State University where he was a member of the basketball team all four years and graduated with his degree in health and sports science.

Eichenberger interned for a sports development organization in Las Vegas where he trained current and future NBA players after graduating college. He then came to Denver to work as a personal trainer specializing in athletic strength and conditioning before being hired by the Nuggets.

He is an NSCA Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS*RSCC) and owns a master's degree in Kinesiology. He is also certified as a Corrective Exercise Specialist (CES) through NASM, RPR, EXOS and PPSC certified, and is finishing his Muscle Activation Technique specialist certification.

Eichenberger resides in Denver with his girlfriend Carly, their daughter Gia and sons August and Maxwell.

Jason Miller Associate Head Athletic Trainer

Jason Miller enters his ninth year with the Denver Nuggets and fourth as Associate Head Athletic Trainer. Miller assists in overseeing the treatment and rehabilitation of player injuries, overseeing evaluation and ordering of custom orthotics, and ordering medical supplies.

Miller is a graduate of the University of Iowa with a bachelor's degree in Exercise Science, during which time he worked with the Hawkeyes athletic department and men's basketball team. Miller then received his master's degree in Higher Education from Auburn University at which time he spent two years as a Graduate Assistant Athletic Trainer with Auburn's football program, before transitioning to the Head Athletic Trainer with Auburns

Men's Basketball team for four seasons.

Miller then took a job with the University of Connecticut's Men's Basketball program for 4 seasons and was honored to be part of the 2004 NCAA national championship team led by Ben Gordon and Emeka Okafor. Miller then headed west to the University of Washington, where he spent one year with the Huskies' football and baseball teams before jumping back into basketball with the Oklahoma State University Men's Basketball program for eight seasons, before being hired in his current role with the Denver Nuggets. Miller completed his Doctor of Athletic Training degree in August of 2020 from Moravian College.

Miller was also fortunate to be part of USA basketball, where in 2005, he worked with the U21 World Championship team held in Argentina and again in 2009 where he was part of the World University Games, held in Serbia; where the team received the Bronze Medal. In addition to being a Certified Athletic Trainer, Miller holds multiple certifications including: Certified Exercise Specialist (CES), Performance Enhancement Specialist (PES), Certified Strength and Conditioning Coach (CSCS), Selective Functional Movement Assessment (SFMA), Graston Technique, and Active Release.

Miller and his wife Teresa reside in Denver with their two sons Henry and Sawyer.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Welcome to the 2021-22 season, the Nuggets 23rd at Ball Arena (previously known as Pepsi Center). This is the Nuggets 45th season in the NBA and 54th season in Denver - we continue to strive to provide the media with a professional atmosphere to cover our games. For your benefit, please read through the following guidelines and please contact us at (303) 405-1100 if there is any way we can assist you in your coverage of the Nugrets this season.

BALL ARENA

Ball Arena is located just off Interstate 25 at the Speer (South) or Auraria Parkway exits. The mailing address is: 1000 Chopper Circle, Denver, Colo. 80204. Ball Arena is approximately 35 minutes from Denver International Airport.

PRESS CREDENTIALS

Application for all credentials must be made through the Nuggets Media Relations Office. Requests for single game media credentials must be made at least 24 hours in advance and on Fridays for Sunday games. NO DAY OF GAME CREDENTIAL REQUESTS WILL BE HONORED, WITH NO EXCEPTIONS. Radio stations, television stations, magazines and weekly newspapers will be accommodated on a game-by-game, space-available basis. When applying for the first time, requests from magazines and weekly newspapers must be in writing on company letterhead and must include copies of the publications (if applicable). Those with season credentials who will cover specific games must call the Nuggets Media Relations Office to arrange for seating. Credentials must be visible to security staff at all times. The Nuggets reserve the right to revoke credentials at any time for any reason.

PRESS SEATING

Press seating at Ball Arena is located in the following areas: courtside, above the vomitory between sections 130 and 132, at the top of section 130 and in the press box. A media-dedicated elevator can be accessed across from the doors to the Nuggets locker room. TV broadcasters will be seated courtside. Beat writers and visiting media will be seated above the vomitory. The home and away radio broadcast positions are located in section 202/260 and can be accessed via the club level. There will be a Nuggets media relations representative on hand to assist radio broadcasters at this position. Wireless internet is available throughout the arena.

PRESS PARKING

Press parking will be in the Tacoma Lot on the East side of Ball Arena. From Speer, enter Ball Arena at Chopper Circle. Corolla Lot will be the second lot straight ahead. From Auraria Parkway, enter Ball Arena at 9th Street. Follow the circular drive to the right and proceed to the East side of the arena. Turn left just past the Land Cruiser Lot (previously Valet Lot). Tacoma Lot will be straight ahead.

PRESS ENTRANCE

The press entrance is located inside the loading dock on the East side of the arena. From the Tacoma Lot, walk straight across the street and head towards the entrance located near the TV trucks. There is a set of staris leading to a door entering the dock. Media Will Call will be set up inside the press entrance. This is also the entrance for practices.

PRESS DINING ROOM

The press dining room is located in the press lounge. Food and beverages will be available to the working media two hours prior to the game through tip-off. The dining room is open for soft drinks at halftime.

WORKING PRESS ROOM

The working press room is located at court level on the West side of the arena. The working press room is equipped with telephones, wireless internet, electrical outlets and a television for media use only. We must limit access to the working press room to media members filing stories. It is impossible to accommodate family, friends and guests. The Nuggets will rely on media members to maintain a courteous, professional atmosphere in the working press room.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Credentialed photographers may shoot from the baselines of the Ball Arena floor in designated areas only. Photographers may not block courtside signage at any time. Free-lance photographers will not be granted credentials unless they are on specific assignment from a magazine or newspaper and there is space available. The Nuggets require a letter of request from an editor to verify any credential applications by free lancers. The Nuggets ask that photographers please be considerate of season ticket holders behind them.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Game notes and other pertinent statistical information will be in the working press room 90 minutes before tipoff. Play-by-play, quarter, halftime and final boxscore sheets will be distributed in all press areas. Out of town scores will be delivered to broadcast crews on press row and will be displayed on scoreboards. Quote sheets will be available as soon as possible following the game in the press room.

INTERVIEWS

The visiting team's head coach will generally conduct post-game interviews outside the visitors locker room or in the visiting locker room's coaches lounge. Nuggets head coach Michael Malone will be available outside the locker room 10 minutes following the game. Interviews with players are possible up to 45 minutes prior to the game and the locker room will be open 15 minutes after the game. Again the Nuggets will rely on the media to maintain a courteous, professional atmosphere in the locker rooms at all times. NO AUTOGRAPHS ARE ALLOWED DURING INTERVIEW PERIODS. Failure to comply with these rules may result in the forfeiture of your credential.

PRACTICE/SHOOTAROUNDS

Nuggets practices this season will generally begin at 11 a.m. at the team's Practice Facility within Ball Arena. Shootarounds on gamedays will be at 10 a.m. Please contact the Nuggets Media Relations Office to arrange for any interview requiring one-on-one access. Follow the Official Twitter account of the Denver Nuggets PR Department (@NuggetsPR) to get instant updates.

CELL PHONES

Cell phone use is prohibited in locker rooms.

Chris MarloweTelevision Play-By-Play Announcer

Chris Marlowe begins his 18th year as the television play-by-play voice of the Nuggets on Altitude.

Marlowe, is a veteran of nine consecutive Olympic telecasts on NBC, most recently calling beach volleyball at the 2020 Tokyo games. Prior to coming to Denver, Marlowe called Pac-10 Basketball for FOX Sports Northwest in addition to handling USC Trojan play-by-play duties for FOX Sports West.

Marlowe has called play-by-play for a variety of sports during his career, including basketball, football, soccer, volleyball, boxing, swimming, diving, water polo, gymnastics, cliff diving, poker and the XFL.

Prior to his announcing career, Marlowe excelled in athletics, playing basketball and volleyball at San Diego State University. In 1976 and 1978 he was voted the Most Valuable Player by USA Volleyball. Marlowe's athletic career culminated as captain of the gold medal-winning U.S. Olympic Volleyball team in 1984. The athletic honors continued with his induction into five total hall of fames, including his induction into the San Diego State Aztec Hall of Fame and the California Beach Volleyball Hall of Fame in 1994.

In the offseason, he resides in Denver, with his wife and two daughters.

Scott Hastings Television Analyst

The 2022-23 season marks Scott Hastings' 40th year associated with the NBA, either as a player or a broadcaster. He has been covering NBA games as a member of the media since 1993, including 25 seasons with Denver and four seasons with TNT. This will be his 17th straight season providing insight to Nuggets telecasts.

An 11-year veteran of the NBA, Hastings was a member of the 1989 league champion Detroit Pistons and played for Denver from '91-93. A four-year letterman at Arkansas, Hastings was named Honorable Mention All-American as a senior in '82 and left as the school's second all-time leading scorer behind Sidney Moncrief with 1,779 career points (now ranks fourth all-time).

He was also recently inducted into the Southwest Conference Hall of Fame as well as the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame, University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame and the state of Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame. Originally drafted by the New York Knicks with the 29th selection of the 1982 NBA Draft, Hastings also played professionally for Atlanta and Miami during his career.

One of the most well-known media personalities in the Denver market, Hastings has co-hosted a daily sports talk radio show for the last 23 years and served as the Denver Broncos radio color analyst for nine seasons. Hastings welcomed his new baby daughter Eleanor Grace to the world in 2014.

Vic LombardiTelevision Reporter and Host

Vic Lombardi joined Altitude on January 1, 2016 as the Studio Host for the Pre-Game, Halftime, and Post-Game coverage of the Denver Nuggets games.

Lombardi previously worked as a television & radio host in South Bend, Austin, Phoenix and most recently the Sports Anchor for Denver CBS4. Lombardi comes to Altitude Sports with more than 25 years of experience in the sports industry and is a 30-time Emmy award winner, 16 for Best Sports Anchor. He is one of the most respected sports personalities in the country, which the number of awards attest.

He attended the University of Colorado and graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1991. He resides in Denver, Colorado with his wife, Terri and three kids.

Katy WingeDenver Nuggets Reporter and Host

Katy Winge is in her fifth season as an analyst, reporter, and host for Altitude TV and the Denver Nuggets. Before that she was the in-arena reporter and an associate producer at the Ball Arena, hosting the pregame and halftime show Courtside Countdown.

Winge played Division I college basketball on a scholarship at Illinois State where she was a three-year captain and a four-year letter winner. She then went on to get her Master's in Journalism at Northwestern in Chicago.

Previously, Winge hosted the nationally syndicated Fantasy Football Hour. Prior to moving to Denver, she worked as a sideline reporter and host for Comcast SportsNet Chicago and FOX Sports Wisconsin. She also did analyst work for Big Ten Network. In addition, she worked as a local sports anchor, producer, and reporter at KTTC/FOX 47 in Rochester, MN.

Currently she also works as a college basketball analyst and is an adjunct professor at Metropolitan State University of Denver.

Chris DempseyDenver Nuggets Reporter and Host

Christopher Dempsey is a Colorado native, born in Boulder, grew up in Montbello, and attended Montbello High School before moving on to majoring in journalism at the University of Colorado at Boulder. His career of over two decades of sports journalism began in Boulder, covering preps, all manner of sports at CU, and the Denver Broncos for the Daily Camera newspaper. In 2003, Dempsey moved on to the Denver Post, where he covered the Nuggets, college football at both CU and CSU, the Colorado Rapids and national college basketball. As a 20-something he was once told by a veteran in the business that eventually a life of immersing himself in sports would become stale, that he would look for outlets. Dempsey never believed it. And to this day he counts himself lucky to be working in a world (sports), covering a sport (basketball) and being around a hometown team

(the Nuggets) that energizes him every single day.

Bill HanzlikTelevision Anchor and Reporter

Bill Hanzlik, who spent 10 years as a player and coach in the Denver Nuggets organization, is in his 10th season as Nuggets anchor and reporter for the pre-game and post-game shows on Altitude Sports.

Considered one of the most beloved players in Nuggets franchise history, Hanzlik was with Denver from 1982-91 and helped the Nuggets reach the NBA Playoffs eight times. During his career, the Nuggets posted a cumulative record of 360-296 (.549) and captured two Midwest Division titles (1984-85 and 1987-88). Originally the 20th overall selection in the 1980 NBA Draft (by Seattle), Hanzlik played two seasons for the SuperSonics before he was traded to Denver.

In 1991, Hanzlik moved on to the coaching ranks, becoming an assistant for Allan Bristow with the Charlotte Hornets. He was an assistant with the Hornets for five seasons and later moved on to coach with Lenny Wilkens and the Atlanta Hawks organization in 1996. On May 29, 1997, Hanzlik was named head coach of the Nuggets and held that position for the 1997-98 season.

Hanzlik now directs the Gold Crown Foundation, a non-profit corporation dedicated to improving the lives of Colorado's children through athletics and education. He founded the organization in 1986 with the help of Colorado business leader Ray Baker. Now a full-time CEO of the Foundation, Hanzlik has overseen the growth of the Foundation's athletic programs from one-week summer girls' basketball camp with an enrollment of 150 to its current 20,000 participants, ages 9-18 in numerous sports programs.

Hanzlik played four seasons at the University of Notre Dame (1976-80) and helped lead the Irish to the NCAA Final Four. He was also a member of the 1980 U.S. Men's Olympic Basketball Team that did not compete in the 1980 Moscow Olympics because of a political boycott. He was elected to the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame in 2003.

Bill and his wife, Maribeth, reside in Greenwood Village. They have four children.

Todd RomeroSports Reporter

Todd Romero is a Denver native and a 1986 graduate of the University of Denver. Todd began attending Nuggets games as far back as 1969 when the Nuggets were the Denver Rockets.

After beginning on radio, Romero landed his first sports anchor job in 1991 at KJCT in Grand Junction. In 1995, Romero was hired at KUSA Channel 9 where he covered the Denver Broncos in back-to-back Super Bowls and was the first local reporter in the locker room for live interviews after the Broncos beat the Packers in Super Bowl XXXII.

Romero is also one of the few Denver broadcasters to be in the Rockies clubhouse when they captured their first ever wild card playoff berth in 1995. The Colorado Avalanche arrived that same year and Todd was there to cover the team through that season which culminated in winning the Stanley Cup.

Romero also had stops in Kansas City as the Sports Director for a local NBC Affiliate. Following a 3-year stay in Kansas City, Todd then worked as play-by-play talent for the WWE before heading to Florida where he covered the Florida Gators and Tim Tebow in their championship season.

In 2012, Romero was hired on at Altitude and is now in his 11th year with Altitude Sports. He hosts the pre and post-game shows for the Nuggets, does play-by-play for high school football and for men's and women's basketball at the University of Denver.

BROADCASTING

Jason Kosmicki Radio Play-By-Play Announcer

Kosmicki enters his 30th season with Kroenke Sports Enterprises. After serving numerous roles in the radio department, Kosmicki has been the voice of the Denver Nuggets for the last 15 years.

"Koz" moved back to the states at age 11 after spending seven years living in Germany. He relearned the English language and eventually attended the University of Nebraska at Kearney.

While in college, he served as Sports Director of the campus radio station and called playby-play action for "just about any sport imaginable," including football, basketball, baseball, wrestling, volleyball, softball, swimming and even the Sigma Tau Gamma fight night (boxing).

His athletic career peaked in high school where he was a four-year letterman in football and basketball and two years in golf. But as Koz is quick to point out: "It's not that impressive; we had 60 kids in our high school."

After college, Koz landed radio stints in Eau Claire, WI (where on his first week he did play-by-play for a curling tournament), Minneapolis, Washington D.C., Houston, Corpus Christi and Colorado Springs before making his way to the Denver area.

In his free time, Koz enjoys golfing and fishing at Lake McConaughy. The Nebraska native follows his home state Cornhuskers and resides in Indian Hills. His daughter Jacque graduated CU Denver and recently got married.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

Achilles Tendon – The thick tendon at the distal portion of the calf that connects the gastrocnemius (calf) muscle to the heel.

Aerobic – Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen.

Anaerobic – Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) – A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint.

Anti-inflammatory – Any agent that prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Arthroscopy – A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of the damage or confirm diagnosis.

Atrophy – To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Biceps – Muscles on the front of the upper arm responsible for flexing the elbow and shoulder.

Bone Scan – An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. A bone scan is particularly useful in diagnosing a stress fracture.

Bruise – A discoloration of the skin as a result of an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Bursa – A fluid-filled sac located in areas of the body where friction is likely to occur, for example between a tendon and the underlying bone.

Cartilage – Smooth, slippery substance preventing the ends of bones from rubbing together.

Chondromalacia – Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for roughening of the on the underside of the patella, which can occur in any patellofemoral injury.

Concussion – Jarring injury of the brain.

Contusion – A tissue injury caused by a direct blow.

Cyst – Abnormal sac containing liquid or semisolid matter.

Dehydration – State resulting from loss of body fluid where fluid output (sweating) exceeds fluid intake.

Dislocation – Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Fracture – Breach in continuity of the bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress and transverse.

Groin Strain – Strain to the muscles that work to adduct the leg.

Hamstring – Group of muscles that run from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. The hamstring muscles work to flex the knee and extend the hip and are often injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of flexibility.

Hip Pointer – Contusion to the iliac crest.

Hyperextension – Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Inflammation – The body's natural response to injury in which the involved site may display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging – Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) – Ligament on the medial aspect of the knee that connects the femur to the tibia and provides medial stability to the joint.

Meniscus – Crescent-shaped cartilage located within the knee that works to absorb weight and provide stability.

Metatarsals – Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Microfracture Surgery – An orthopedic surgical technique that can help restore knee cartilage by creating tiny fractures in the adjacent bones, causing new cartilage to develop. It can be used to treat both degenerative knee problems as well as cartilage injuries, and has gained a high profile in the sports world in recent years.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

Patella – The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as to increase the mechanical advantage and force-generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis – Inflammation of the patellar ligament; also known as jumper's knee.

Plantar Fascia – The tight band of connective tissue in the arch of the foot.

Plantar Fasciitis – Inflammation of the plantar fascia; associated with overuse or acute foot injuries.

Posterior Gruciate Ligament (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that prevents backward displacement of the tibia.

Quadricep Muscles – A group of four muscles in the thigh that works to extend the knee.

Reconstruction – Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Rotator Cuff – Group of four shoulder muscles responsible for moving the shoulder in internal and external rotation and assisting with overall shoulder stability.

Shin Splint – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Spasm – A sudden, violent and involuntary muscle contraction.

Sprain – A twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament.

1st Degree: A stretching but no tearing of a ligament. Athlete may either return to play immediately or will miss very little activity.

2nd Degree: A partial tear of a ligament. Bracing may be required. Athlete may miss one to four weeks.

3rd Degree: A complete tear of the ligament. Depending upon the ligament involved, bracing or even surgery may be required. Athlete may be out of activity from three weeks to one year or longer.

Sternum – The breast bone.

Strain – The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle or tendon.

1st Degree: A stretching but no tear of the muscle or tendon. Athlete may either return to play immediately or will usually miss very little activity.

2nd Degree: A partial tear of a muscle or tendon. Athlete may miss one to four weeks.

3rd Degree: A complete tear of a muscle or tendon. Depending upon the muscle or tendon involved surgery may be required. Athlete may be out of activity from three weeks to one year or longer.

Stress Fracture – A hairline break in a bone usually caused by overuse.

Subluxation – Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can be returned to its normal position without formal reduction.

Tendinitis – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, usually caused by chronic overuse.

Triceps – Muscle on the back of the upper arm that is responsible for extending the elbow and shoulder.

Ultrasound – An electrical modality that transmits sound waves through an applicator into soft tissue in order to heat the area.

Byron Beck Jersey Number Retired: December 16, 1977

Byron Beck's name can be found next to the word "first" in several places in the Nuggets history books. He was the first player signed by the original Denver Rockets franchise in 1967 and fittingly, his was the first number retired by the Nuggets.

Beck, who played for the Rockets/Nuggets from 1967-77, was one of the best pure shooters in ABA history, and his sweeping hook shot was a team trademark for its first 10 years.

The two-time ABA All-Star (1969; '76) never averaged more than 14.5 points per game in a season; nonetheless, he stands in sixth place on the Nuggets all-time scoring list (8,603) - a true reflection of his consistency. In addition, he ranks second in rebounds (5,261) and third in games played (747).

Beck always stepped up his play at crunch time. In the 1973 ABA Playoffs, Beck averaged nearly 20 points per night. In 1976, he helped lead the Nuggets to the ABA Finals. Beck appeared in 66 playoff games with Denver, posting a 12.8 scoring average - more than a point per game higher than his career regular season average.

The former University of Denver star was a fanfavorite and his work in the community earned him considerable respect off the court. Beck was the leading Nugget in personal appearances and he was the Denver sports co-chairman for Labor Day's Muscular Dystrophy Telethon.

Dan Issel Jersey Number Retired: April 5, 1985

The name Dan Issel became synonymous with the Denver Nuggets during his playing days from 1975-85 and it still is today. Nicknamed "The Horse", Issel is one of the most popular sports figures in Colorado Issel never failed to respond when duty called and was one of the most durable players in pro basketball history. In his 15-year pro career, Issel played in 1,218 of 1,242 possible games.

When he retired in 1985, he left as the Nuggets all-time leading scorer and rebounder after notching 16,589 points and 6,630 boards. He still ranks among the top five in nearly every statistical category on the Nuggets all-time list. One of the most prolific scorers in basketball history, Issel ranks eighth on the combined ABA/NBA all-time scoring list with 27,482 points. He trails only Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Karl Malone, Michael Jordan, Wilt Chamberlain, Julius Erving, Moses Malone and Shaquille O'Neal.

There was more to Issel than his on the court prowess, however. He was also a leader in the community. In 1985, the Professional Basketball Writers Association of America recognized that and presented Issel with the J. Walter Kennedy Award for community service.

In 1992, Issel returned to the Nuggets, this time as their head coach. He orchestrated a tremendous turnaround, taking a club that had won just 44 games in two years prior to his arrival and leading them to the NBA Playoffs in just two seasons. He re-joined the franchise in 1998 as General Manager and subsequently served as President and Head Coach until 2001.

"The Horse", a 1976 ABA All-Star and a '77 NBA All-Star, became the first Nugget to be elected into the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1993.

David Thompson

Jersey Number Retired: November 7, 1992

Before there was Michael Jordan, there was David Thompson. Nicknamed "Skywalker", Thompson dazzled Nuggets fans from 1975-82 with his incredible leaping ability, crowd-pleasing dunks and seemingly effortless scoring ability.

In his seven seasons, Thompson racked up 11,992 points - good for fourth on Denver's all-time scoring list. In addition, he still ranks in the top five in nearly every major scoring category in Nuggets history.

After the Nuggets acquired his draft rights in 1975, Thompson made an immediate impact. In his first year, he captured ABA and pro basketball Rookie of the Year honors after averaging 26.0 points per game. He was also named MVP of the 1976 ABA All-Star Game.

Nothing changed when the Nuggets entered the NBA. "DT" was named to the All-NBA First Team in 1977 and '78 and he made three-straight NBA All-Star appearances, earning MVP honors in the 1979 contest. He is the only player to ever be named MVP in both an ABA and NBA All-Star game.

On April 9, 1978, the 6'4" guard poured in a careerhigh 73 points against the Detroit Pistons. The 73 points are a Nugget single-game record and are tied for the third-most ever scored by an individual in a non-overtime game in NBA history.

Thompson was traded to Seattle in the summer of 1982, ending his illustrious seven-vear career in Denver. DT was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1996.

Alex English Jersey Number Retired: March 2, 1993

Alex English's career can best be summed up with one word: consistency. In 10 of his 11 seasons with the Nuggets (1979-90), English averaged better than 21 points per game. In eight of those 11 years, he scored more than 25 per game.

When he departed as a free agent in 1990, English left as the Nuggets all-time leading scorer - having notched 21,645 points - and his career average of 25.9 ppg is the best in Nuggets history. He also ranks 13th on the NBA's all-time scoring list.

The eight-time NBA All-Star is also the Nuggets career leader in games played, minutes played, field goals made, field goals attempted and assists. Additionally, he ranks third in steals, fourth in rebounds and fifth in blocked shots.

In each of his first 10 seasons with the Nuggets, English finished among the top 10 in the NBA in scoring. In 1982-83, he became the first and only Nugget to lead the league in scoring with a 28.4 average. English also holds the distinction of leading the NBA in scoring during the decade of the '80s, after compiling 19.682 points.

A second-team All-NBA member in 1982, '83 and '86, English guided the Nuggets to Division championships in 1984-85 and '87-88.

Also a leader in the community, English was presented the J. Walter Kennedy Citizenship Award for community service in 1988. In 1985, he convinced NBA players to donate their shares from the All-Star game to Interaction Ethiopia, a relief fund.

He was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1997.

Doug MoeNuggets Total Wins Retired: Nov. 7, 2002

Doug Moe was the face and personality of the Nuggets throughout the '80s - one of the most successful eras in club history - serving as the team's charismatic head coach from 1980-90.

On Dec. 18, 1980, Moe assumed head coaching duties following the departure of Donnie Walsh. Over the next 10 years, he racked up 432 regular season wins and 24 postseason victories - both team records. He guided the Nuggets to nine-straight playoff appearances, including a trip to the 1985 Western Conference Finals, and two Midwest Division titles in '84-85 and '87-88. In '87-88, the Nuggets won a franchise-record 54 games, earning Moe NBA Coach of the Year honors.

Moe's "passing game" offense was one of the most feared in the NBA during the '80s. The Nuggets averaged no fewer than 114.6 ppg in each of his years and averaged better than 120.0 ppg for five-straight seasons ('80-85). In fact, the Nuggets led the NBA in scoring in six of Moe's 10 years in Denver.

Moe's clubs produced 13 All-Star selections and three of his players, David Thompson, Dan Issel and Alex English, have been inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame.

Affectionately known as the "Big Stiff", Moe began his career with the Nuggets in the ABA as an assistant coach on Larry Brown's staff from '74-76. During those two seasons, the Nuggets posted a 125-43 record and advanced to the 1976 ABA Finals.

He also served as head coach of the San Antonio Spurs ('76-80) and Philadelphia 76ers ('92-93) and compiled 628 career wins, the 20th-most in NBA history.

Dikembe Mutombo Jersey Number Retired: October 29, 2016

Dikembe Mutombo was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in September 2015 and will become the fifth player and sixth representative in team history to have his number enshrined in the rafters. He joins fellow Nuggets great Byron Beck (#40), Alex English (#2), Dan Issel (#44), David Thompson (#33) and Doug Moe, who coached the team to a franchise-record 432 wins. This will mark the first time that the Nuggets have retired a player's number at Pepsi Center.

Drafted fourth overall by Denver in the 1991 NBA Draft, Mutombo played for the Nuggets from 1991 to 1996, compiling averages of 12.9 points, 12.3 rebounds and 3.81 blocks in 391 total games. As a member of the Nuggets, Mutombo was a three-time NBA All-Star (*92, *95 and *96), three-time NBA blocked shots leader (*93-94, *94-95, *95-96), named Defensive Player of the Year in *94-95 and was instrumental in helping the Nuggets become the first eighth-seeded team to defeat a number one seed in NBA Playoff history. Mutombo still remains the Nuggets all-time leader in blocked shots (1,486) and career rebounding average (12.3 per game) while ranking third in rebounds (4,811) and 19th in points (5,054).

In addition to his on-court accolades, Mutombo's humanitarian efforts shine even brighter. He created the Dikembe Mutombo Foundation in 1997, opened the Biamba Marie Mutombo Hospital in the Democratic Republic of Congo in 2007 and has been one of the leaders of the Basketball Without Borders program in Africa for over 15 years. Former NBA Commissioner David Stern appointed Mutombo to the role of Global Ambassador in 2009

Lafayette "Fat" Lever Jersey Number Retired: December 2, 2017

Lever was a member of the Nuggets from 1984 through 1990. In 474 games spanning six seasons with Denver, he averaged 17.0 points, 7.6 rebounds, 7.5 assists and 2.46 steals per game. The Nuggets reached the postseason in all six of Lever's years while playing under Head Coach Doug Moe and his up-tempo system, including a trip to the Western Conference Finals in 1985.

Lever earned an All-Star spot in both the 1988 and 1990 seasons and was named to the All-NBA Second Team in 1986-87 and the All-Defensive Second Team in 1987-88. He is scattered throughout the Nuggets' all-time leaderboards, ranking 1st in steals (1,167), 2nd in assists (3,566), 7th in points (8,081), 7th in made field goals (3,304), 7th in minutes played (16,867) and 8th in rebounds (3,621).

The Pine Bluff, Arkansas native also earned the reputation as a prolific triple-double threat during his time in Denver. He registered 46 triple-doubles as a Nugget (including three in the playoffs), far and away the most in franchise history. He is currently one of only seven NBA players since 1983-84 to have registered a triple-double with steals and is the only Nugget in team history to ever do so. Lever led the NBA in triple-doubles (16) in 1986-87, tied for the most in the league (12) in 1987-88 and came in 3rd (10) in 1988-89. Over that three-year span, Lever ranked 2nd in the NBA in total triple-doubles with 38, trailing only Magic Johnson (43) and ahead of Michael Jordan (18).

GIVING BACK TO THE COMMUNITY

NUGGETS COMMUNITY OUTREACH

The Denver Nuggets are committed to improving the lives of families and children in Colorado through a comprehensive program of education, health and fitness, community initiatives and special events. Our players, coaches and staff are active participants in the community, dedicating over 1,000 hours of their time off the court to visiting schools, hosting youth basketball clinics, lifting the spirits of pediatric and military patients in the hospital and hosting fundraising events that benefit Kroenke Sports Charities.

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

The Denver Nuggets are proud to support a number of youth programs that focus on education, health & fitness and teamwork. Every year, players and coaches can be found in the classroom using basketball principles to get students excited about school. The team is also committed to helping children with health and athletic programs by having the players and coaches share their knowledge about fitness and nutrition. The education, health & fitness and athletic programs of the Denver Nuggets include:

Denver Nuggets Math Hoops

Denver Nuggets Math Hoops is a fast paced basketball board game that allows students to learn fundamental math skills through direct engagement with real player statistics of their favorite NBA and WNBA players.

Nugget for a Day

Nugget for a Day, presented by Rocky Mountain Hospital for Children, provides an opportunity for deserving children to spend a day as a special guest of the Denver Nuggets. The program includes an exclusive behind the scenes tour of Ball Arena, invitation to a closed Nuggets practice, game tickets, dinner, and special recognition at the game.

Special Olympics Colorado Clinic

For more than 30 years, the Denver Nuggets Signature community event is the annual basketball clinic with Special Olympics Colorado (SOCO). Nuggets Players, Coaches, Ambassadors, SuperMascot Rocky, Nuggets Dancers, and Altitude talent host 150+ SOCO athletes and their families for a special day at Ball Arena. Drill stations include passing, dribbling, shooting, defense, and conditioning — all led by Nuggets players, staff & celebrities. Additional event activities may include a Special Olympics Board Luncheon, Job Shadow for Special Olympics athlete ambassadors, and athlete health screenings.

"Nobody is perfect, except a kid." CHOPPER" TRAVAGLINI, Founder of Denver Nuggets Charities

Most Valuable Teacher

The Nuggets Most Valuable Teacher program, in partnership with Ford, honors teachers for their outstanding work to empower youth in our community. Selected teachers will receive a classroom grant, virtual classroom visit from a Nuggets celebrity, a Nuggets gift bag, and a gift card to a local restaurant.

Green Assists

Kroenke Sports Charities, in partnership with Ball, is proud to offer Green Assists, an environmentally-friendly grant for schools. Local student clubs, classrooms and schools are invited to apply for grants to be used towards sustainable school improvements.

Mentor Month

The Denver Nuggets team up with Planet Fitness to celebrate mentorship throughout the year.

Denver Nuggets Unified Takeover

The Denver Nuggets will host Unified Game Takeovers for local middle & high school unified basketball teams. Unified teams involve athletes with, and without, disabilities playing on the same team. The Nuggets create an NBA-environment at local middle or high school gymnasiums by incorporating assets including, but not limited to, SuperMascot Rocky, Denver Nuggets Dancers, Skyline Drumline, Mile High City Hype Squad and in-game PA Announcer, Kyle Speller.

For more information on Denver Nuggets community relations and fan development programs and initiatives, please call 303-405-1100 or visit nuggets.com.

GIVING BACK TO THE COMMUNITY

KROENKE SPORTS CHARITIES

Kroenke Sports Charities (KSC) is committed to improving lives through the spirit and power of sports. We strive to serve our community through education, health and fitness initiatives, athletic programs, and direct aid, with the particular purpose of helping families, children, veterans, and the disabled. Kroenke Sports Charities provides relevant programs and support, directly and with other nonprofit organizations, to ultimately assist, encourage, and enrich the lives of those in need.

SIGNATURE COMMUNITY PARTNERS

Kroenke Sports Charities provides ongoing funding and in-kind support for several non-profit agencies which make sports available and accessible for children and adults of all abilities.

Colorado Adaptive Sports Foundation

Colorado Adaptive Sports Foundation aims to bolster independence, improve self-confidence, elevate social interaction and enhance quality of life for people of all ages throughout Colorado, who have physical disabilities.

Denver Public Schools Foundation – Denver Prep League

In 1997, KSC became a Founding Partner of DPL to give DPS middle school students, ages 11-14, an avenue for participation in organized after school activities; a void left unfilled in DPS for 30 years. Today, DPL is comprised of 33 DPS schools which enables more than 6,600 students the opportunity to participate in 17 sports throughout the school year and summer.

Gold Crown Foundation

Founded in 1986, the GCF strives to educate youth and community through sports and enrichment programs. With programs reaching nearly 18,000 youth each year, the purpose of GCF youth programs are built on three principles — participation, sportsmanship and community.

Playworks Colorado

Founded in 1996, Playworks expanded to Colorado in 2010. Playworks Colorado serves low-income schools across Denver, Aurora, and Mapleton through year-round, on-site support services. They reach thousands of students across Colorado through professional development workshops and youth organizations.

Special Olympics Colorado

Special Olympics was founded in 1962 to provide children with intellectual disabilities an opportunity to demonstrate their dignity and capability through sports and competition. Special Olympics Colorado serves more than 18,000 athletes state-wide through 21 year-round sports programs KSC also supports SOCO's Unified Schools Program which assists SOCO collaboration with Unified Sports.

Young Americans Center for Financial Education

Young Americans Center's goal is that Colorado youth grow up knowing how to earn, make, and manage their money wisely, regardless of background. They focus on personal finance, free enterprise, global economics and entrepreneurship with four keystone programs: Young Americans Bank, Young AmeriTowne, International Towne and YouthBiz.

FUNDRAISING

Each year, Denver Nuggets players and coaches encourage giving by promoting, and participating in, the following charitable events, which benefit Kroenke Sports Charities:

Online Auctions

Throughout the year, Kroenke Sports Charities raises funds through online auctions of autographed items, one-of-a-kind merchandise and gameworn items. To participate, visit ksc.givesmart.com.

50-50 Raffle

Fans can purchase a 50-50 raffle ticket during each game played at Ball Arena. Proceeds support youth sports programs in Colorado. For more information or to purchase online visit 5050colorado.com.

Nuggets License Plates

Nuggets fans have the opportunity to show their pride with a Denver Nuggets license plate. Proceeds from license plate sales will benefit education, health and recreation programs for children and families in Colorado supported by Kroenke Sports Charities.

DENVER NUGGETS COMMUNITY AMBASSADORS

Throughout the year, Denver Nuggets Community Ambassadors work with more than 30,000 people at approximately thirty monthly appearances in Colorado such as basketball skills clinics, fundraising events, sportsmanship — leadership — civic presentations and events.

SUPERMASCOT ROCKY

NBA DEBUT: DECEMBER 15, 1990 BIRTHPLACE: ROCKY MOUNTAINS

HEIGHT: 5"10"

One of the most recognizable and beloved mascots in the NBA, SuperMascot Rocky has become a staple at every Nuggets home game. His daring acrobatics and innovative skits make his performances eagerly anticipated by fans and players alike.

Rocky is an integral part of the community programs of the Denver Nuggets and makes countless appearances at schools of all levels throughout the state of Colorado. In addition, Rocky has made several appearances for other professional sports teams and has performed on behalf of the NBA at the All-Star Game, as well as several international functions.

From sporting events to corporate outings, Rocky will make every event memorable. To book Rocky for an appearance, call the Nuggets at 303-405-1112.

IN-GAME PRESENTATION

SKYLINE DRUMLINE

Kroenke Sports & Entertainment, along with the Denver Nuggets, are proud to present for the seventh consecutive season, the Skyline Drumline. A part of the Game Presentation Department, this unique entertainment team further enhances the Nuggets game night experience and continues to raise the bar across the league for NBA entertainment.

The Skyline Drumline is a professional interactive drum team that can be heard in and around Ball Arena, as well as at Nuggets events around the state of Colorado. This group of the cities most gifted percussionists perform at every home game during play, timeouts, and select halftimes, making them another prominent element of the nightly entertainment lineup. From the moment fans arrive at Ball Arena, the drumline has an astounding presence that has become a fan favorite.

For more information on how to book the Skyline Drumline for your next event, please visit nba.com/nuggets/skyline-drumline.
